"I'm tired (Yawn)," said Mary, "I can't walk (Plod plod) another step."
Mary's tummy was very heavy. She was about to have a baby (waa waa). She struggled up onto the donkey (Hee Haw). As the donkey (Eehor) walked (plod plod) along Mary was so tired (Yawn) she nearly fell asleep.

Mary and Joseph came to the town. "The baby (waa waa) is about to come," said Mary, "we need somewhere to sleep ." They walked, (plod plod), around, but the only place they could find was a stable where donkeys (Hee Haw) live.

Joseph was surprised to see that over the stable was a star (twinkle twinkle). It was red and blue and gold, the most beautiful star (twinkle twinkle) you have ever seen.

Mary was so tired (Yawn) she could hardly stay awake. She lay down on the donkey's (Hee Haw) straw.

That night Mary's baby (waa waa) was born. In the stable with all the donkeys (Hee Haw) watching. And when the baby (waa waa) was born, the star (twinkle twinkle) above the stable, twinkled even more brightly than ever.

Joseph held the little baby (waa waa) in his arms. Now I'm really tired (yawn) said Mary as she fell fast asleep. Joseph was happy. Mary was happy. The baby (waa Waa) was happy. Even the donkey (Hee Haw) was happy.

"Thank you God for this special baby (waa waa)," said Joseph. "Thank you God for the Baby (waa waa) Jesus. And the star (twinkle twinkle) twinkled more brightly and more beautifully than all the other stars (twinkle twinkle).
