

David and Goliath

Characters

Narrator

David,

Groups 1 & 2

Narrator: Once upon a time there was a boy called David.
David: That's right, little old me!
Narrator: David
David: That's right, little old me!
Narrator: was a shepherd boy who looked after his Father's sheep.
Group 1: Bah, bah, bah.
Narrator: But, err ... (point to David) "he" was a very brave shepherd boy. When a Bear,
Group 2: Hug, hug, hug,
Narrator: came near the sheep David,
David: That's right, little old me,
Narrator: would chase it away, and if a Lion,
Group 1: Roar, Roar, Roar,
Narrator: came near the sheep, Da.... er ... (point at David) "he" would wave his arms and shout so loud
Group 2: (All wave arms and shout Ahhhh!)
Narrator: that the lion would head of somewhere else!
Now one day David
David: That's right, little old me,
Narrator: Ahhhh! One day ... (point at David) "he"... had a special visitor,
Group 1: Oooooooooo!
Narrator: who told David,
David: that's right, little old me,
Narrator: who told ... (point at David) "him" ... that one day "he" would be King,
Group 2: Long live the King, Long live the King!!
Narrator: but David
David: That's right, little old me
Narrator: thought the visitor must be a bit mad. After all, how could a shepherd boy become King!
Group 2: Long live the King, Long live the King.
Narrator: One day Da .... err... (point at David) "he" .... went to visit his brothers in the army, and while David
David: that's right, little old me!
Narrator: Ahhhh! while (point at David) "he" was there a great giant
Group 1: Fee fi foe fum!
Narrator: shouted terrible insults at the army. David
David: that's right, little old me.
Narrator: said that he would fight the great giant!